If any party filing the same so requests, the copy shall be kept separate from the file of the interference, and made available only to Government agencies on written request, or to any person on a showing of good cause. Failure to file the copy of such agreement or understanding shall render permanently unenforceable such agreement or understanding and any patent of such parties involved in the interference or any patent subsequently issued on any application of such parties so involved. The Commissioner may, however, on a showing of good cause for failure to file within the time prescribed, permit the filing of the agreement or understanding during the six-month period subsequent to the termination of the interference as between the parties to the agreement or understanding.

“The Commissioner shall give notice to the parties or their attorneys of record, a reasonable time prior to said termination, of the filing requirement of this section. If the Commissioner gives such notice at a later time, irrespective of the right to file such agreement or understanding within the six-month period on a showing of good cause, the parties may file such agreement or understanding within sixty days of the receipt of such notice.

“Any discretionary action of the Commissioner under this subsection shall be reviewable under section 10 of the Administrative Procedure Act.”

THE 85TH BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY OF SENATOR HAYDEN, OF ARIZONA

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, it is my pleasure and privilege to call to the attention of the Senate the fact that today is the birth anniversary of a great man, the senior Senator of the United States, the President pro tempore of this body, a man whom, regardless of our political affiliations, we respect, admire, and love.

On this occasion I want to extend, on my behalf—and I hope all other Senators will join me—my felicitations and congratulations to the senior Senator from Arizona on his birth anniversary.

[Prolonged applause, Senators rising.]

Mr. HAYDEN. Mr. President, what the majority leader says makes me very happy to be 85 years young.

LEGISLATIVE PROGRAM

Mr. MANSFIELD obtained the floor. Mr. DIRKSEN. Mr. President, will the Senator yield?

Mr. MANSFIELD. I yield.

Mr. DIRKSEN. I wish to ask the majority leader about the schedule for the remainder of the day.

Mr. MANSFIELD. In response to the question raised by the distinguished minority leader—whom we are all glad to see back in the Chamber and in such obviously good health—

Mr. DIRKSEN. I thank the Senator. [Applause.]

Mr. MANSFIELD. There will be no further business tonight except for a couple of bills which seem to be without opposition and which have cleared both sides.

It is my understanding that the Senator from New York [Mr. KEATING] has several amendments, and that he is agreeable to a time limitation of very short duration on those amendments.

Then it is contemplated that the Senate will take up the State, Justice, and Commerce appropriation bill; the conference report on the drug bill; possibly the conference report on the trade bill, in the event the House has acted, possibly tomorrow, more likely on Thursday; the conference report on H.R. 7283, the war claims bill, in the event the House has acted Wednesday or Thursday.

For the remainder of the week, on Thursday and possibly Friday, there will be the supplemental appropriation bill; the conference report on the District of Columbia Appropriation bill; the conference report on the State, Justice, Commerce, Judiciary appropriation bill; the conference report on the Agriculture Department appropriation bill; the conference report on the public works appropriation bill; the conference report on the foreign-aid appropriation bill; the conference report on the supplemental appropriation bill; and other odds and ends as they come in.
